

19th Midterm Ministerial Meeting of the Non-Aligned Movement

Kampala, the Republic of Uganda

15 – 16 October 2025

MOTION OF THANKS TO THE PEOPLE AND GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF UGANDA

We, the Ministers of Foreign Affairs of the Non-Aligned Movement (NAM), gathered at the 19th Midterm Ministerial Meeting of the Coordinating Bureau of Non-Aligned Movement in Kampala, Republic of Uganda, on 15 – 16 October 2025, under the theme “Deepening Cooperation for Shared Global Affluence”, express our deepest appreciation to His Excellency Gen. Odongo Jeje Abubakhar, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Uganda, as well as to the People and Government of Uganda for their generous and kind hospitality.

We, the Ministers of Foreign Affairs, also congratulate Gen. Odongo Jeje Abubakhar, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Uganda for his leadership, which was fundamental for achieving consensus on the Kampala Final Document of the 19th Midterm Ministerial Conference of the Non-Aligned Movement, and Kampala Declaration and for ensuring the success of this historic Meeting of the Non-Aligned Movement.

We, the Ministers of Foreign Affairs, are convinced that the momentum generated at the 19th Ministerial Meeting of the Non-Aligned Movement will help ensure concerted and adequate response to the existing and emerging global challenges that affect the Member States of the Movement.

We, the Ministers of Foreign Affairs, are confident that by reaffirming the validity and relevance of our principled positions, as reflected in the outcome documents of the 19th Ministerial Meeting of the Non-Aligned Movement, we are making a step forward in revitalization process of our Movement, and stress that strengthened unity and enhanced solidarity among us will be instrumental in advancing our collective quest to achieve peace, stability, development and prosperity.

We, the Ministers of Foreign Affairs, commend the efforts of the Republic of Uganda to strengthen internal cohesion and a shared sense of purpose of the Non-Aligned Movement in addressing complex global challenges, including deepening inequalities, shifting geopolitical dynamics, climate change, technological disruption, and fragile peace and security.

We, the Ministers of Foreign Affairs, stand ready to support the Chairmanship of the Republic of Uganda of the Non-Aligned Movement in all its efforts aimed at advancing the fundamental purposes and ideals of the Movement.
